

EDAC Meeting Notes: June 28, 2022

Present: Mark Hines, Phil Kirschner, Jim Walsh, Craig Denin, Nicole Gillespie

Not Present: Craig Scafario, Kate Wilson, Richard Kaye, Nancy Jamanow

No minutes to approve from May 2022

Council Report: Mayor Gillespie

- Budget approved- no tax increase
- Lenola Streetscape Project approved by state; will go out for bid
- Moorestown Slogan Contest: now through Labor Day
- Working on pre-development plan for Lenola area-with new streetscape-possibly new business will be interested
- Chester Ave Funeral Home-may not be redeveloped with housing
- Perchion Park-horse will be delivered end of August

MBA Report-Craig Denin

- Moorestown Day-June 4-Successful event
- New MBA Treasurer from Moorestown Field Club, will be appointed
- 11 MBA member now-great group per Craig
- Scott Coffee Run-400 runners-low numbers compared to previous years
- Autumn in Moorestown 2022-food trucks, beer vendors all set; vendors attending are more artistic types

New Business

- Jim Maley-Mayor of Collingswood presented at council meeting
- possible issuing of permits on municipal land to sell alcohol in lieu of a liquor license; possibility for this: Perkins Art Center

Old Business

-Town signage recommendation-2 quotes: Michigan Company quote-better pricing; local company quote on high side
EDAC to make site recommendations by next meeting; study has already been done
EDAC recommends trashcan upgrades on Main Street; possibility of Appearance Grants for businesses on Main Street; possibility to incentivize businesses to take pride in their storefronts

Next Steps

-EDAC to complete charter by July 2022
-Moorestown music on Main St is going well
-Ma and Pa's Barbeque is opening soon on Main St

~No members from public at meeting

Jim Walsh